

Department of Information Technology: Course Objectives & Learning Outcomes

F.Y. B.com	I	GE1:Gneric Elective	Computer Applications-I	To provide an understanding of essential Information Technology Concepts and Emerging Technologies. Includes practical skills in Data capture, analysis and presentation, report formatting, efficient search techniques and online collaboration tools	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.To State and Explain basic Computer Connection, Input & Output Devices ,Printer installation & Networking Devices. 2. To State & Explain Data Capture using Google Forms, to create ,update and share Google forms. 3. To State & Explain Excel software for calculation, analysis, logical reasoning and working with multiple worksheets including recording & running a Macro and Pivot Table Concepts. 4.To State & Explain Presentation Software with effective slide shows & animation 5. To state & Explain Google Scholar Search Engine.
F.Y. BCom	II	GE2: Generic Elective	Computer Application-II	To Understand Computer Networking Concepts, E-Commerce technology & business applications. Understand principles of cyber security online threats and cyber laws and prepare students to adopt safe practices.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.To state and explain basic Networking Commands 2. To purchase product online from E-Commerce site and learn the payment gateway system. 3. To State & Explain Browser Security & safety through checking SSL certificate. 4. To Sate & Explain investigation tool such as Win hex for forensic investigation 5.To create cyber secure password, Privacy settings on face book. 6.To Sate and Explain Payment system & Online banking 7. State and Explain Investigation tools for forensic investigation. To state & Explain Cyber law.