Report of Industrial visit to 'Goa Potteries', Bicholim, Goa

An industrial visit to 'Goa potteries', Bicholim IDC, Bicholim, Goa was organized by Department of Commerce (U G) in collaboration with the Incubation centre of Sant Sohrobanath Ambhise Government College of Arts and Commerce, Virnoda, Pernem Goa on 30th May 2022 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. A total of 16 T. Y. B. Com (A) students participated in the same including 06 females and 10 males.

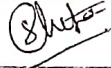

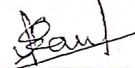

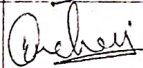

The objectives of the industrial visit were to create awareness amongst the students about one of the traditional arts of Goa, to make students aware of the process involved in pottery-making, to study the marketing and advertising strategy adopted by the unit.

The unit houses a production unit wherein different forms of mud artifacts are manufactured and are offered for sale at the unit itself. 'The artifacts include not only the traditional earthen pots and utensils but also modern clay artifacts which are very much in demand due to the various health benefits its offers', said the unit in-charge.

The students were accompanied by the teacher organizers Ms. Salima Haldankar, Assistant Professor in Commerce, Ms. Mrunali Jambotkar, Assistant Professor in Commerce, and Mr. Akshay Sakharkar, Assistant Professor in Commerce
