PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Under graduate program in Arts

The B.A. program equips students with a range of skills, knowledge, and attitudes that will prepare them for success in their personal, professional, and civic lives. The following are the key Program Outcomes:

PO 1 - Critical thinking: Graduates will be able to analyze and evaluate information, arguments, and concepts critically. They will demonstrate the ability to think logically, creatively, and independently, and make informed and well-reasoned judgments.

PO - 2 Effective communication: Graduates will be proficient in written and oral communication, able to express ideas and information clearly, logically, and persuasively. They will demonstrate effective listening skills, adaptability in different communication contexts, and proficiency in using technology for communication purposes.

PO - 3 Making career choices: Graduates will have the knowledge, skills, and self awareness necessary to make informed and effective career choices. They will possess career readiness skills such as self-assessment, goal setting, job search strategies, and networking, enabling them to pursue meaningful and fulfilling careers.

PO - 4 Social responsibility: Graduates will develop a sense of social responsibility and an understanding of the ethical dimensions of their actions. They will have the ability to recognize and respect diverse perspectives, cultures, and values, and contribute positively to their communities and society at large.

PO - 5 Values and Ethics: Graduates will develop a strong ethical framework and an understanding of the importance of values and integrity. They will demonstrate ethical decision-making skills, the ability to navigate ethical dilemmas, and a commitment to professional ethics and social justice.

PO - 6 Environment and Sustainability: Graduates will gain an understanding of the interconnections between human society and the natural environment. They will develop knowledge and skills to contribute to sustainable practices, conservation efforts, and environmental stewardship, promoting a balance between human needs and ecological sustainability.

PO - 7 Lifelong learning: Graduates will develop a passion for learning and a commitment to continuous personal and professional development. They will have the ability to adapt to change, seek new knowledge, and engage in lifelong learning to stay current in their field of interest.
